Wool-lawn Farmers' Club [Reported for the Alexandria Gazette.]
The July meeting of the Wool-lawn Farmers' Club was held at "Grey's Hill," the residence of Morris R. Wilkinson, on the 26th inst.

In the absence of President Pierson, Jas.
W. Roberts was elected chairman pro tem.
After the minutes of the last meeting were read,

John Ballegger stated that he had procured the improved outting apparatus for mowing machines, referred to, and used it to his complete satisfaction. He had cut 20 acres of heavy timothy without taking out the knives, and they were in apparently as good order as when started.

In an exchange of views as to the cause of general failure of the oat crop to give a satisfactory yield it appeared that Daniel Thompson had put in a piece of oats in December last as an experiment, which produced an exceptionally large yield. It was generally thought to have been the consequence of the unusually mild winter.

Then followed a talk about the short crop of wheat and the probable cause of the poor yield—attributed to heavy rains at the time the wheat was in bloom.

Courtland Lukens produced some circulars of horse and steam power hay presses, and suggested that an enquiry be made into the expediency of procuring a press for neighborhood use. It was decided to have a special meeting of those interested in the matter.

A report of a recent meeting of the Deer Creek Farmers' Club was read, wherein the members thereof discussed the question as to how farmers could improve their condition. It appeared that most of the members of that club who expressed their views were opposed to a high tariff, while it further appeared that the members of this club generally maintained opposite views.

An article was also read in which the writer endeavored to show by numerous statistics that the enormous surplus in agricultural products of the last few years was nearly exhausted, and that the ratio of population to arable areas was increasing so fast that better prices would be the necessary consequence.

The next meeting being the anniversary, James W. Roberts and J. Norman Gibbs were selected as a committee to confer with the ladies and make the necessary arrangements for the event.

The club adjourned for supper. The pleasant day, after the copious rains, causing all nature to rejoice, brought out a large company, both old and young.

After supper, the committee to arrange for the anniversary, reported that they had so far outlined the programme as to announce that the meeting would be at "Huntley" (President Pierson's residence) the 23d of August at 2 o'clock p. m.—a basket picnic to which all entitled are invited. It was the composition of the committee and some hints let fall, most likely some sort of an entertainment will be disclosed when the curtain rises. W. GILLINGHAM, Secretary.

Odd Connecticut Elopements.
Two elopements in the land of steady habits a few days ago excited great surprise, for they were queer ones. W. W. Hurd, night watchman for Landon, Bathebell & Co.'s factory in Bridgeport, went home the other morning, according to his habit, after his night's work, and went to bed. He slumbered heavily, awaking at 5:30 in the afternoon. Having arisen, he was not long in discovering that his wife and daughter had stripped the house of its belongings except those in his chamber, and eloped with somebody. The somebody, so Hurd believes, is a sporting physician in the neighborhood, who has been very attentive to mother and daughter. If his generosity to the daughter is admissible evidence in connecting him with dismantling the house and the departure of Mrs. and Miss Hurd, then the gay and lively doctor, the watchman avers, is the double-dyed villain. The doctor had presented Miss Hurd with a great many things, among them being a gold watch and chain, a diamond ring, a pair of horses, a piano and a deposit of money in a local bank and the bank book, in which the deposit is in her name. Hurd hasn't any idea where family household goods and doctor have taken themselves.

The elopement of John Powell, a married man of New Haven, and Miss Clara Quinn of the same city, is another odd one. Miss Clara had boarded with the Powells for some time, and John was sweet with her. Finally he told his wife to go to her father's home in Meriden for a while, and he would go to Boston to find work. Husband and wife went their different ways, but John Powell didn't go very far. He took a right-about-face wheel, went in to New Haven and ran away with Clara. Mrs. Powell says Powell has gone and may stay, she won't hurt him; but Clara Quinn's mother will make things warm for him if she finds him.

Bill saved by always keeping Simmons Liver Regulator in the house.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night; if you lead a sedentary life or are weakened by the strain of your duties; if you need a cathartic to relax the bowels; if you require action on the Liver to relieve indigestion; if you require something to purify the blood and regulate the system; if you are traveling in unhealthy localities, or food or water does not agree with you, a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator will remove all trouble.

Ex-Governor of Ga., and U.S. Senator Joseph E. Brown says:
"You are at liberty to use my name in praise of Simmons Liver Regulator, and recommend it to everyone as the best preventive of Fever and Ague. It supercedes Quinine if taken in time."
